DEVOTION: MARK 6:30-34, 53-56

30 The apostles returned and met with Jesus, and told him all they had done and taught. 31 There were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his disciples didn't even have time to eat. So he said to them, "Let us go off by ourselves to some place where we will be alone and you can rest a while." 32 So they started out in a boat by themselves to a lonely place. 33 Many people, however, saw them leave and knew at once who they were; so they went from all the towns and ran ahead by land and arrived at the place ahead of Jesus and his disciples. 34 When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw this large crowd, and his heart was filled with pity for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began to teach them many things. 53 They crossed the lake and came to land at Gennesaret, where they tied up the boat. 54 As they left the boat, people recognized Jesus at once. 55 So they ran throughout the whole region; and wherever they heard he was, they brought to him the sick lying on their mats. 56 And everywhere Jesus went, to villages, towns, or farms, people would take their sick to the marketplaces and beg him to let the sick at least touch the edge of his cloak. And all who touched it were made well.

ST CHAD'S AT PRAYER:

Monday 22 July 2024

Let us pray: Make us to know your ways, O Lord; teach us your paths. Lead us in your truth, and teach us, for you are the God of our salvation; for you we wait all day long (Psalms 25:4-5). Lord Jesus, only You know where our paths will lead, but we trust that, even if we do not know either the way or the destination, You are with us and before us. May we follow You with joy. Amen.

Tuesday 23 July 2024

Let us pray: Lord, Your Word encourages us to be quick to repent and ask for forgiveness if we should sin. Merciful Lord, today we pray for true repentance from all slander; the times we have spoken against or judged our brothers and sisters in Christ. Forgive us Lord for in so doing, we speak against Your law. Help us Holy Spirit to refrain from gossiping, causing dissension and separating close friends (Prov.16:28). Forbid us Lord to spread slander, or any unconfirmed notions about others. Father God, grant us grace to let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour and slander be put away from us, along with all malice (Ephesians 4:31). Forgiving God, may we see as Your beloved, those with whom we are in conflict, and may we share in Your love for them by praying for them, in as much as we pray for ourselves. Amen.

Wednesday 24 July 2024

Let us pray: Father, we pray for our ordained clergy; bishops, priests, deacons, archdeacons, deans and we pray for the lay people within the Anglican dioceses. Like us, they are human and every bit as capable of making mistakes or slipping into sin. We pray that they abandon all trust in their own resources and cast themselves unreservedly on the mercy of God. We pray that they will stay focused on Jesus, that their ministry will flow from that intimacy. Lord Jesus Christ, we pray that walking in God's truth, righteousness and holiness, is a top priority in their lives. We pray for their complete reliance on you, Father God their full obedience to You. We pray that they are continually mindful of the responsibility of their ministry. We pray for godly character to make the godly impact to which You have called them. Deliver them from evil. Amen.

When you can't put your prayer into words, God hears your heart.

Thursday 25 July 2024

Let us pray: Most gracious and loving God, we derive so much joy from Christian worship - thank you. Thank you Lord, that as prayer, preaching, giving and interacting are key components of Christian worship, so is singing and music. We pray for our worship group at St Chad's and all who are involved with our music ministry. Thank you for their love of music, their commitment and their dedication in leading us in corporate worship. We pray that their spirits will be touched by the power of the words they sing, that they will not grow weary of repetition of the words, but that they will hear the message afresh each time they open their minds, hearts and mouths. Lord Jesus, when we worship You in our church services, may our hearts and minds sing praises to You, may we lift our faces and voices to You, may we join with the voices of the angels that You may be glorified with songs of everlasting praise. Amen.

Friday 26 July 2024

Let us pray: Lord Jesus, we pray for all people in Africa and South Africa who are traumatized and suffering through ongoing attacks and reprisals; where societal, religious and economic imbalance is creating a volatile climate. We pray for accountable and responsible leaders at every level in society. We pray for an end to religious violence, that the response of Christians and others in those affected regions will bring peace and stability. We especially pray for the safety of Christians who are targeted by extremist groups and for those Christians who want to leave their country because they do not see any future for their children. We pray for the restoration of order and for systems that will promote justice and peace throughout the world. In our country, we pray against those who incite looting, riots and violence, and ask that protesting against unjust and unfair practices would not give rise to lawlessness. We pray for those who have suffered loss of homes, loss of livelihood, loss of life, all who have been affected by the destruction caused by the severe weather conditions and we ask Lord, that you would restore what has been lost. Lord in Your mercy hear our prayer. Amen.

Saturday 27 July 2024

Meditation: O God, who hast made the heavens and the earth and all that is good and lovely therein, and has shown us, through Jesus Christ our Lord, that the secret of joy is a heart freed from selfish desires: help us to find delight in simple things, and ever to rejoice in the richness of Thy bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
